

GRANTS

The Arizona Humanities Council (AHC) supports innovative, community-based projects and partnerships that use history, literature, philosophy, and the other humanities disciplines to strengthen and enhance civic life across Arizona. AHC welcomes proposals from a wide range of nonprofit organizations and encourages projects that are innovative in their approach toward the humanities and public programming.

Grant Deadlines
Intent Deadline	Application Deadline	For Projects After
November 18, 2011	January 6, 2012	March 1, 2012
March 16, 2012	May 4, 2012	June 25, 2012
July 20, 2012	September 7, 2012	October 29, 2012

Proposals for all kinds of program formats are welcome, but special consideration is given to programs that are interactive in nature and aim to bring together diverse groups of Arizonans. Examples of program formats include: interactive lectures and discussions, exhibits, publications, projects involving non-profit radio, television, film, print, and web content, teachers' workshops and in-service programs. Eligible applicants include nonprofit (501c3) organizations, local, tribal, and state governments and academic institutions.

PROJECT GRANTS

Project Grants are competitive awards for innovative, community-based projects and partnerships that connect Arizonans to humanities scholarship through public programming. Applicants may request up to $5,000, which must be matched by in-kind contributions. An additional amount up to $5,000 may be requested if matched by third-party cash contributions, which must be in place at the time of application to AHC.

CULTURAL HERITAGE TOURISM GRANTS

Through the National Endowment for the Humanities We The People initiative, AHC supports the development and implementation of projects that leverage the State's cultural and historical assets to promote tourism and regional economic development. Cultural heritage products must provide accurate and authentic interpretation of an area's history and heritage by qualified humanities scholars and demonstrate the potential to attract out-of-town tourists.

Eligible applicants include Arizona museums, historic houses, archaeological sites, and heritage centers that are constituted for nonprofit purposes, or are parts of governmental or tribal entities. Applicants may request up to $10,000, which must be matched by in-kind contributions.

ARIZONA CENTENNIAL GRANTS

AHC is pleased to request proposals for projects which commemorate the 100th Anniversary of Arizona Statehood. AHC encourages applicants from communities across Arizona whose projects that explore, preserve, and share Arizona history in the context of statehood, as well as projects that address the meaning of statehood as Arizona moves into the next century.

OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

Opportunity grants fund expenses that support the program costs of smaller public humanities projects through a simplified application process. Applications are accepted year-round for amounts up to $1,000 and are approved by the Executive Director at the close of every month.