

Complimentary Tickets to The Phoenix Symphony!

As a friend and supporter of the Arizona Humanities Council, you are invited to enjoy Tchaikovsky's Suite No. 3 performed by The Phoenix Symphony.

Tchaikovsky's Suite No. 3

Composed in 1884, Tchaikovsky's wonderfully elaborate Suite No. 3 was declared a stunning triumph at its premiere in St. Petersburg, leaving the audience electrified by its lyrical and flowing first movement and its majestic polonaise. The work will be paired with German cellist Daniel Mueller-Schott, making his Phoenix debut with Prokofiev's charming Sinfonia Concertante. Last summer, The New York Times hailed Mueller-Schott for his "gorgeous, plush tone and meticulous attention to expression."

A limited number of tickets are available for the following performances -

Thursday, March 4th at 7:30 p.m. - Symphony Hall
Saturday, March 6th at 8:00 p.m. - Symphony Hall

For more information about the above performances, visit The Phoenix Symphony's website at <http://www.phoenixsymphony.org>.

Please reserve your tickets no later than 10:00am on Monday, February 22nd by emailing jgavin@azhumanities.org.

Limit 4 tickets per person. Reservations are on a first come, first serve basis.

Thank you to The Phoenix Symphony for their generosity in providing us with this wonderful opportunity!

About the Arizona Humanities Council

www.azhumanities.org

The Arizona Humanities Council, founded in 1973, is an independent nonprofit organization that works in cooperation with the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Stories convey our histories, traditions, social mores, beliefs and insights about what it means to be human. The Arizona Humanities Council creates opportunities for sharing these diverse stories through critical thinking and public discussion, to better understand and appreciate one another, so that we can make informed decisions about our collective future.
