

MISSION

Arizona Humanities builds a just and civil society by creating opportunities to explore our shared human experiences through discussion, learning and reflection.

Arizona Humanities is a statewide 501(c)3 non-profit organization and the Arizona affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Since 1973, Arizona Humanities has supported public programs that promote understanding of the human experience with cultural, educational, and non-profit organizations across Arizona.

WHAT DO WE DO?

- Provide grants and resources for high-quality public humanities programs and resources
- Offer entertaining and informative speakers through the AZ Speaks program
- Bring Smithsonian Museum exhibitions to rural communities
- Encourage family reading through literacy programs that engage children and parents
- Support veterans from all eras with writing workshops, book and film discussions
- Engage people in conversations about important issues facing our communities

HOW CAN YOU GET INVOLVED?

- Follow us on social media @AZhumanities & subscribe to our e-newsletters
- Attend a program in your community
- Host a program or apply for a grant
- Donate to support public programs

WHAT ARE THE HUMANITIES?

The humanities include history, literature, languages, linguistics, philosophy, jurisprudence, philosophy, archaeology, comparative religion, anthropology, ethics, and art history, to name a few. They help us explore the human experience and how we relate to one another. Through the humanities we examine our past and most importantly develop better ways to create a just and civil society for the future.

